Captain,-Has Forty Members.

A new company, which is located at Sutton, W. Va., has been mustered into the First infantry of the West Virginia National Guard. The official designation of the company is "Company B." The commissioned officers of the new company are Ernest B. Carlin, captain; Robert S. Colebank, first lieutenant; W. H. Corbett, second lieutenant. Captain Carlin is a member of the House of Delegates of the last legislature and the formation of this c to his untiring efforts. When the mustering officer arrived at Sutton April 18, forty men were waiting to enlist. The company is expected to average up to fifty men. Never before in the history of the Guard was such a company started so auspiciously and from the enthusism that is being taken in matters pertaining to the Guard among the officers and men, company B of the First bids fair to win a place in the first rank for
